

Camp & Retreat Center Director Position - Camp Penn

Camp Penn, Susquehanna Conference UMC, is located in the South-Central PA woodlands. We seek a person with gifts, experience, and passion to guide a team that inspires people to grow as Christian disciples who live & lead with love that actively embodies care for others & the good of the world. Camp Penn hosts other nonprofits and religiously affiliated groups who, also, transform lives and better society. Strong candidates bring nonprofit management skills to effectively develop staff and volunteers, programs, facilities, finances, donor relations, etc. You will join a team with a strong shared vision and mutual support for expanding the reach and impact of 5 camp and retreat centers that are part of a unified ministry. The Camp Penn Director will be integral to this team spirit which extends even further among colleagues leading more than 800 UM congregations and extension ministries in the region. Certification in camp and retreat ministry is desirable - not required. Experienced candidates good at relationship building with a heart for hospitality and service are encouraged to apply. Equal Opportunity Employer. Salary, retirement, health insurance, etc.

Send resume and cover letter to Conference Director of Camp & Retreat Ministry - kwitt@susumc.org

Deadline to apply is November 15, 2018